As we approach release day, IGN has put together a FIFA 2012 special article that includes thoughts from the editors, previews and reviews on every team in the League, and a special feature on Gareth Bale's greatest moments. Check out the FIFA 2012 day one review tomorrow to see how we scored FIFA 22 on Xbox One! Editors' Analysis: FIFA 2012 is the best-selling soccer game of all time, and FIFA 22 is poised to once again be the best-selling football game of the year. While EA Sports continues to tweak FIFA in subtle ways over the years, this year's debut is a massive leap. The players are in tip-top shape for FIFA 2012, and the base game's improved gameplay and licensed stadiums are a huge improvement. Like FIFA 15 before it, FIFA 2012 has a revamped multiplayer mode that takes advantage of PS4 and Xbox One's online play capabilities. From Conference format and tactical substitutions to free kicks and goal line technology, EA Sports has done a lot to make the new FIFA a truly game-changing entry in the series. This year's edition is a true return to form for EA Sports' top-selling franchise, and it's one of the best sports games of all time. Note: It's worth noting that FIFA 2012 comes with the Season Pass, which includes two more teams and a handful of new features, including a cover kit feature and dynamic Player Unknowns Tour. The Season Pass is sold separately in the Xbox Store, and is included in the PlayStation Store's EU version. Is "FIFA 2012" worth the new price? FIFA 2012 Buy on Xbox Live The good While better than ever before, "FIFA 2012" is still an improved experience over "FIFA 11." The goal in "FIFA" is still fun. Sure there are better aspects of "FIFA 11" with its improved passing and shooting, but we've always been willing to forgive these issues because of FIFA's addictive beauty. EA Sports has always delivered a more challenging game. "FIFA 2012" is no different. The smoother off-the-ball movement, better animations, more passes and touches as the ball's in flight, and more realistic ball physics and goalkeepers are just some of the improvements over "FIFA 11" that will appeal to

Fifa 22 Features Key:

- FIFA Ultimate Team.

Take on friends and complete challenges in FIFA Ultimate Team Mode.* This year FIFA Ultimate Team Mode has been overhauled with a new dynamic attributes algorithm and animations ensuring you are always performing at your best!

- Vast new improvements and additions to engine technology, gameplay and presentation

Join the very latest football revolution – FIFA 22 introduces 'HyperMotion Technology', which harnesses motion capture data collected from 22 real-life players to enable unprecedented control, precision and sublime interactions.

- Player Tagging and Reversible Boots - Read all about them below!

Complete the Ultimate Team Challenge and see your players battle it out in a one-on-one competition to reach the FIFA 22 scoring goals leaderboards. Matchmaking will ensure you only play against other players with similar team ratings to your own, so ensure that your boots and playing style are appropriate.

An extra player tagging feature allows you to re-align your players on the pitch so you can tilt the ball and not interrupt the movement of an on-ball relationship.

Reverse boots are sold separately, but only one pair per person.

- The new in-game camera features

When receiving a free kick or taking a corner, FIFA will now highlight you in the opposition's half. When a player taps the ball, a 'spinning' camera will follow your player as they model a strike or long ball.

- Eight new faces on hand for the new FIFA Ultimate Team mode

The debut of new faces on the pitch! Take part in all major competitions around the world and push your transfers to the limit. International friendlies, the top-level EPL, UEFA Champions League and cup competitions and all major international tournaments are coming to a console near you!

FIFA features many new faces - starting with new contestants to the FIFA 22 soundtrack. More than 150 new singing stars sing in brand new ch
