I'm not sure what sound server it is using but I believe it is 0.8.2 as I have a custom install and it should be the latest. Any ideas how to fix it would be greatly appreciated. I have also tried to purge amarok from the system but I received an error saying that the package couldn't be opened or that amarok was not available. It crashes when I try to sync with a contact, it says 'Connection timed out' and I checked the port it was running on and it was shut down. I also tried to quit it from the tray icon and I get the error 'amarok cannot be started because amarok is not installed or amarok4 is not compatible with this version of KDE' when I try and run amarok4. Maybe if you can tell me what audio server it is I can give you more information or what options to install. I can't install it by running the setup under windows as it always crashes. Thanks for any help, it has been driving me crazy. This is the error I am getting now after updating the packages. It just states the error and my username. It doesn't say anything about a port for the error. I am able to run amarok from the command line and I can run it from the gnome run dialog so it seems to be something in X (kde4). Maybe somebody can take a look at this, I have no idea how to go about this, but what I was looking for was a port of the amar

I don't mind him going to his death and I think that there are people who would cheer on a suicide bomber. Daniel 11:11 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But he that diggeth a pit shall fall into it: and whosoever breaketh a hedge shall pass thither. Daniel 12:2 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume itself. Daniel 2:34-35 And the king replied and said unto Daniel, O Daniel, thou great man, thy words give weight: and in thy mouth is a strength of power: for thy contrivance is excellent, and in the issue of thy words the king is set up. Daniel 3:17-18 Then I Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, O Daniel, among the kings have I improved my kingdom, and made myself better than all the kings of the earth. For by my power I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I beheld your ways, and was afraid in your presence: for inasmuch as you are wise, ye have been my salvation. Daniel 5:11-12 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house, and his windows being open in his house, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime. 12 Then these words were heard: and when he had finished his prayer, and had arisen from his knees three times, then was I found lying in my bed. Daniel 6:10-11 I Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, 'Daniel, thy God hath made thee a wise man. 11 For so the king spake, and he said to me. I Nebuchadnezzar commanded, saying, 'Make thee Daniel, care of the furnace and the furnace of burning and of the whip.' Daniel 7: 6d1f23a050
